and in our breathing,
that through our hearts and our words
your truth may be heard.

Family of God, we gather today to stand in the presence of the Triune God. We gather as witnesses that all creation is full of God's glory. We gather because we have heard God's voice over the waters, in the deserts, and in the forests. We gather as living testimonies that God is Lord of all.

Friends, members, visitors...all beloved of God, welcome to Grace Church this Trinity Sunday as we worship God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Let us prepare our hearts and minds for worship.

People: We join with angels and archangels and all the company of the saints to bless you, to listen for your Word, to immerse ourselves in your grace, in your love.

Leader: Open our hearts and our minds to your presence with us.

People: Take the chaos of the world that has found its way into our hearts — speak your Word and give order and form and new creation.

Leader: Take the failures and defeats, the guilt and the shame that bind our spirits —speak your Word and set us free.

People: Take our longings for your goodness to shape our lives, this community, the hurting world — speak your Word and infuse us with your courage and your hope and your love.

Leader: Then, awaken us to your Holy Spirit who is making all things new, even us.

All: We ask in Jesus’ name, who sends us out to speak love and mercy and grace to those who are waiting, longing, hoping, for a sign that they are not alone, that you are a God of love, that you are a Savior who knows their name, that the Holy Spirit is leading them home. Amen.

Children’s Message

Old Testament Reading: Genesis 1:1 - 2:4a

Creation of the heavens and the earth

When God began to create the heavens and the earth, the earth was complete chaos, and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. And God saw that the light was good, and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And it was so. The earth brought forth vegetation: plants yielding seed of every kind and trees of every kind bearing fruit with the seed in it. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, “Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth.” And it was so. God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth, to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, “Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky.” So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

And God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures of every kind: cattle and creeping things and wild animals of the earth of every kind.” And it was so. God made the wild animals of the earth of every kind and the cattle of every kind and everything that creeps upon the ground of every kind. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, “Let us make humans in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over the cattle and over all the wild animals of the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

So God created humans in his image, in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.” God said, “See, I have given you every plant yielding seed that is upon the face of all the earth and every tree with seed in its fruit; you shall have them for food. And to every beast of the earth and to every bird of the air and to everything that creeps on the earth, everything that has the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their multitude. On the sixth day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

These are the generations of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

Psalter: Psalm 8

A reading from the psalms

How exalted is your name

Leader: O LORD, our Sovereign,

People: how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Leader: You have set your glory above the heavens. Out of the mouths of babes and infants

People: you have founded a bulwark because of your foes, to silence the enemy and the avenger.

Leader: When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,

People: the moon and the stars that you have established;

Leader: what are humans that you are mindful of them,

People: mortals that you care for them?

Leader: Yet you have made them a little lower than God

People: and crowned them with glory and honor.

Leader: You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
People: you have put all things under their feet,

Leader: all sheep and oxen,
People: and also the beasts of the field,

Leader: the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
People: whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

Leader: O LORD, our Sovereign,
People: how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Epistle Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from Paul's 2nd letter to the Corinthians

Paul's farewell

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Be restored; listen to my appeal; agree with one another; live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Here ends the reading of the Word.

Gospel Hymn "This Is My Father's World"

1. This is my Father's world, and to my listening ears all nature sings, and round me rings the music of the spheres. This is my Father's world: I rest me in the thought of rocks and trees, of skies and seas; his hand the wonders wrought.

2. This is my Father's world, the birds their carols raise, the morning light, the lily white, declare their maker's praise. This is my Father's world: he shines in all that's fair; in the rustling grass I hear him pass; he speaks to me everywhere.

3. This is my Father's world. O let me ne'er forget that though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the ruler yet. This is my Father's world: why should my heart be sad? The Lord is King; let the heavens ring! God reigns; let the earth be glad!

Prayer of Illumination (unison)

Sing into our ears, O Spirit, the holy word of life. Tell us who we are and to whom we belong so that we may live with gratitude for all that you have done. Amen.

Gospel Lesson: Matthew 28:16-20

A reading of the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Matthew

Living in the community of the Trinity

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him, but they doubted.

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Pastor: "The word of God for the people of God."

People: Thanks be to God. Amen.

Prayer of Preparation: Gracious God, help us to hear the message with open hearts and open minds. Help us so to hear your Word that each time we say, "I believe in the Holy Spirit," we mean that we believe there is a living God who is able and willing to enter our humanness and change it to reflect you. Amen.

"Spirit in Partnership"
Genesis 1:1-2:4a

Rev. Dionne T. Hall
Matthew 28:16-20

Response to the Word: Almighty God, you come to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, having given us the gift of your presence in our lives and hearts. Now give us the grace to love you with our minds as fully as we ought. Cast aside in us our too simplistic views of your majesty and power. Stir up in us a fresh awareness of the richness of your being, the worldwide diversity of your work and the wide wonder of your love, that we might perfectly love you in order to more faithfully serve you all our days. Amen.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried;

The third day he arose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Pastoral Prayer

We are a world that is desperate for you, God.
When powers struggle for dominance,
and war, oppression and abuse result;
When groups of people oppose one another because of ideology, religion or culture;
We need a God who is bigger than ourselves, and our personal interests.

When people are disregarded and devalued
because of poverty, geography or disease;
When compassion and justice is withheld to some because of sexuality, race or gender;
We need a Savior who is more compassionate than we are who includes even those we would exclude.

When resources are mismanaged and abused,
and the world and its creatures are destroyed;
When motivation is scarce and creativity is in short supply to address the challenges that we face;
We need a Spirit who is more powerful and more creative than we could ever be.

Lord God, Loving Savior, Empowering Spirit,
we offer you these prayers
because we need you so desperately.
Captive us, call us and fill us, that we may be carriers of your eternal life
to this world that you love so dearly. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Confession

Creation displays the glory of God, but our sin keeps us from rejoicing in the love God reveals. Yet Christ Jesus the Son carried our sins to the cross, and the Holy Spirit breathes new life into us so that we can praise God, our Maker, Savior, and life-giving Lover. Let us confess our sins, that we may receive such grace.

Prayer of Confession (unison)

As heirs of God, let us come to lay before God our sin and wrongdoings and lack of faith. Let us come with hearts that seek newness.

Holy One, we acknowledge that too often we try to live not acknowledging the mystery of your Being. Even though you have shown us your truth, we allow ourselves to rest in our own uncertainties.

We find ourselves unable or unwilling to embrace the love through which you sent Christ to live among us. We take for granted the grandeur of you as Creator, Redeemer, and ever-present Sustainer. We do not live out the beloved community you desire for all. Forgive us, we pray, and help us give testimony to your love.

Words of Assurance (responsive)

Leader: We trust in these promises: that the Triune God, in each of its persons, promises us newness of life, a gift of new birth. The Divine Trinity invites us to testify to its Being as the foundation for reconciliation of all of God's people and for Creation.

All: In these truths, we trust and give thanks. Thanks Be to God!

Passing of the Peace (responsive)

Leader: The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

People: And also with you.

Invitation to the Offering

Out of the abundance of God's own life, we have received the abundance of God's creation, God's word, and God's love. Let us return to God a portion of all that we have given, with joyous and glad abandon.

Offertory Anthem 'I Will Sing With The Spirit' - David Goodenough (b.1968)

Doxology

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here below: Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Offertory Prayer (unison)

Creating God, from the beginning, you formed light out of darkness, breath from dust, and life from love. In Christ, you walked among us, and through your Spirit, you empower us still. Today, we offer our gifts— signs of our desire to partner with you in your ongoing work of creation, healing, and discipleship. Use these offerings to build communities of compassion, to welcome the stranger, and to teach your ways of justice and joy. May our giving reflect the wonder of your Triune love and our willingness to go and grow disciples in your name. Amen.

Closing Hymn UMH #569 "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations" (vs 1,4)

1. We've a story to tell to the nations, that shall turn their hearts to the right, a story of truth and mercy, a story of peace and light, a story of peace and light. For the darkness shall turn to dawning, and the dawning to noonday bright; and Christ's great kingdom shall come on earth, the kingdom of love and light.

4. We've a Savior to show to the nations, who the path of sorrow hath trod, that all of the world's great peoples might come to the truth of God, might come to the truth of God. For the darkness shall turn to dawning, and the dawning to noonday bright; and Christ's great kingdom shall come on earth, the kingdom of love and light.

Postlude Toccata – Percy Whitlock (1903-1946)

The Light of Christ goes into the world.

Charge

Go out this day participating in the life of the triune God – by honoring mutuality, living in equality and justice, and celebrating the amazing diversity by which our communion is enriched.

Benediction

Go now in the blessing of the Triune God who draws you into the divine dance, inviting you to partner in God's life-giving work to bring flourishing and abundant life to all creation! Amen.

Grace Notes

May 31, 2026

Mission Statement: Glorify God ~ Draw All to Christ ~ Edify & Equip

From the Pastor: How do we make sense of God the Three-in-One? How do we explain the Trinity without falling into heresy? How do we make real a doctrine that has no direct reference in scripture? We can get so wrapped up in these "how" questions that we don't stop to consider that maybe those aren't the right questions. Instead of trying to find that one story or teaching or psalm to latch onto, we need to step back and consider that the whole of scripture, the whole story of God's work among us then and now, is the story of the Triune God. Our focus scriptures for today are the first chapter of Genesis and the last chapter of Matthew—the beginning of all creation and the end of Jesus' in-the-flesh presence among the disciples.

GIFTS – Your gifts offer HOPE to Grace Church and the community. When we tithe, we follow the example given to us in Genesis 28:10-22 by giving at least 10% to the General Fund. United Methodists value the tithe as a benchmark for giving, one we encourage our members to move toward and, once achieved, move beyond. We believe that there is joy in giving, and the greater the generosity the deeper the joy. The General Fund is responsible for ensuring all the needs of the church are met; this includes all of the ministries, missions, and operational costs of Grace Church. The One Board (as of May 14, 2023) asks that all tithes and offerings be placed in the General Fund except those for T.H.R.I.V.E., Micah's Backpack & Building for the Future. Separate envelopes are provided for these ministries and located by the lectern. This is the only way to donate to these ministries. This will allow Grace Church to move towards fully funding all ministries and missions of the church. This will bring us up to date with current UMC budget practices.
